

10.07.2011

MA'ADEN ALUMINIUM BREAKS GROUND

N/S Underground Corridor Piping Backbone & Associated Power Distribution

Ma'aden Mega Aluminum Project (USD 10.2 billion) - Kicks off construction at Ras Az Zawr (KSA - Eastern Province)

Ground Breaking Ceremony of new Project of Gulf Asia LLC under Flour Arabia Limited was consecrated on 10-July-2011 at Ras Az Zour. The Project "N/S Underground Corridor Piping backbone & associated Power distribution" covers lot of systems like Process Water, Desalinated Water, Sea Water, Fire Water, Potable Water, Irrigation water, etc. With an overall pipeline laying of more than 89KM, scope comprises designs, engineering, supply, fabrication, field erection, Testing of Pipe lines of FRP, HDPE, Coated CS , SS works, materials with Cathodic Protection, associated civil works, pump erections, and disciplines of electrical Instrumentation works.

Highlighting the salient features of Project, it was stated on the occasion that mechanical completion of this prestigious Fluor Project shall be realized as scheduled, cost effectively without compromising both Safety and Quality.

Project duration is only 9 months with peak estimated manpower of 1,054.

